Re: U.S. v. Kaila Minaya Marcano-Pena
Case No. 20 Cr. 59 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

My office represents Ms. Kaila Minaya Marcano-Pena in connection with the above-captioned matter. I write to respectfully request that the Court modify Ms. Marcano-Pena's conditions of release. As part of her bond, the Court ordered that Ms. Marcano-Pena be subject to a curfew with location monitoring. In view of Ms. Marcano-Pena's compliance with her conditions of supervised release for over ninety days and during her recent family faith retreat, it is Pretrial Services's position that she no longer needs a curfew and location monitoring. The Government similarly consents to the removal of curfew with location monitoring.

Accordingly, Ms. Marcano-Pena respectfully requests that the Court modify her conditions of supervised release to remove the condition of curfew with location monitoring.

Respectfully submitted,

Luis O. Diaz
